Important Notices

---

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

What you do not need to tell us

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Claims Made Contract

Subject to its terms and conditions the Policy will cover your civil liability for a breach of professional duty arising from any Claim first made against you during the Period of Insurance.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 however, provides that an insurer cannot refuse to pay a claim by reason only that the claim was made after the inception date of the Policy in circumstances where you gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to the claim as soon as was reasonably practicable after you became aware of those facts but before the end of the Period of Insurance.

Change of Risk or Circumstances

You should advise Chubb Insurance Australia Limited (“Chubb”) as soon as practicable of any material change to your normal business as disclosed in the proposal, such as changes in location, acquisitions and new overseas activities.

Subrogation

Where you have agreed with another person or company, who would otherwise be liable to compensate you for any loss or damage which is covered by the Policy that you will not seek to recover such loss or damage from that person, Chubb will not cover you, to the extent permitted by law, for such loss or damage.
